ROHRER'S PRICE LIST

THE BEST QUALITY SEEDS ALWAYS

Due to limited stocks and higher markets it is necessary for us to issue a new price list at this time. There is an increased demand for good seed this year. Every farmer wants to be assured of planting only the best seed in times like these. We find it is harder each day for us to buy good seed. Especially Northern grown alfalfa and clovers. We still have a fair supply of good, hearty Northwestern alfalfa and clovers on hand. If you want to plant the very best quality seed, we advise you to send your order soon. If you are not ready to receive your seed now, we will gladly ship them at a later date.
